

JIM BUNCH

The Ultimate Life Entrepreneur

Speaker Introduction

We're super excited for the speaker we have with us tonight.

For over 18 years, Jim Bunch has been building businesses and collaborating with people and companies across North America and around the world to help them realize their true and hidden potential. He's built a number of successful businesses some of which he's kept and some of which they've taken public.

He is a member of the Transformational Leadership Council, an elite group of world leaders committed to making a major impact on people and the world. You may recognize some of the other members of the council such as Jack Canfield from Chicken Soup for the Soul, John Assaraf from the movie the Secret, as well as others from The Secret like John Gray, from Men are from Mars Women are from Venus.

And whether it's launching a new business venture or helping someone upgrade their life, there's a common thread you'll find in whatever Jim Bunch does – and that's bringing out the best in the companies and people he works with while personally maintaining an “Ultimate Life”.

We're super excited he's agreed to give us some of his time tonight to share [topic title...ex., the Nine Environments of You].

(If a live on-site presentation, continue with the following paragraph)

It is my pleasure to introduce Jim Bunch.

(If a teleclass, continue with the following the paragraph)

Jim for years you've been involved in the seminar industry teaching some of the things you've learned from working with speakers in the seminar industry like Tony Robbins, etc. Why did you get involved in building coaching businesses instead of just continuing in the seminar industry?

(Jim will take it from there dialoging with you as he goes)
